About Us

At Safal, we understand the value of functionality, safety and sustainability of the place you sprout in. Given the times that we are living in, a smoothly operational and secure environment that ensures a healthy ambience is of paramount importance. And that's why it's essential to cultivate it.

When it comes to timely services and efficient work, you will always find one company to trust! And that's us! Having earned our recognition in the facility management services, we have mastered the art of providing customized solutions to elegant properties and noble clients.

With the inception in the year 2009, the aim of the company was to build a platform that would be able to cater diverse opportunities to several people. The mastermind behind this initiative as well as the driving force towards the company's success is the owner of the company – Mayur Thaker.

Driven by the core values, we provide passionate services and build organizational capabilities that create great value for our clients and stakeholders. Having served many clients through dedicated client-centric ideology, we have perfected the art of providing premium facility management services.

Our biggest asset is our team, without whom, reaching here would have been unimaginable. For their sheer dedication towards our company, we acknowledge every employee as family. We provide opportunities with which they can develop and nurture their talent and utilize it for enhancing productivity and growth in their personal as well as professional lives.

The Founder's Perspective

Mr. Mayur Thaker
Founder

With undying optimism and great determination, I aim to keep the Safal fraternity going strong, creating new benchmarks. My team's unfailing trust and belief in me has helped me achieve the success that I hold today. By extending our quality services and pushing the boundaries, my team and I plan on taking each and every project to greater heights. I lead the way when it comes to training, grooming, manpower management and pertaining prerequisites. My aim is to assist undermined talents by providing specialized training and channelizing them into productive mainstream business.

Excellence should not be just a goal, but a habit

Mr. Jigar Makwana
Vice President

Jigar Makwana began his journey in the services sector in Dec 2017 and is achieving success since then. His vast experience in the development and implementation of world-class sales enablement platforms, high-powered consultative sales training, and productivity programs is remarkable. He has commendable command over sales, business development, marketing and customer service and these are his very own forte.
